

The Valentino Associates Team created an outstanding experience during my recent purchase. Aaron was extremely professional, organized and knowledgeable. He was responsive and made the entire process so much more manageable. He even set up a viewing of a similar house that had been renovated so I could get design ideas. Ben helped with some logistical support and scheduling and was also responsive, professional and organized. I felt the responsiveness level of the entire team was top-notch. My questions were always answered and Aaron went above and beyond. He listened, acted on my behalf and was trustworthy and honest. I would recommend Valentino Associates to anyone looking to purchase a home.
