

I really enjoyed working with Maria and believe that she worked very hard to help me find the best place for me. I told Maria what I wanted at the outset and she listened, from the beginning and throughout, and gave me realistic choices. She seemed to keep a good eye out for new listings and flagged what seemed to be the best for me. I definitely felt like Maria listened to me and personally connected with me. I do feel like Maria acted on my behalf. During the negotiations, I felt comfortable and well-advised. I will recommend Maria to family and friends looking to buy or sell.
