

The Valentino team was excellent. Rachel Valentino provided great advice to us when we were on the fence about some issues that came up in the inspection, and did an amazing job handling the sale of our house, which it did quickly and at a price exceeding our expectations. Ben Kanoy - most of our interactions were with Ben, and he was great, very responsive, knowledgeable, and professional. Jenn - she handled the marketing for selling our house and she was great. Selling our house so quickly and at a great price was extraordinary. We achieved our real estate goals with the exceptional help of Rachel and her team. We would trust them again and will recommend them to family and friends.
