

Rachel was our realtor when we bought our first and second house! She is not just my realtor, but a friend of the family, and I hope to stay connected with her. Rachel, Ben, and Jenn were professional and guided me every step of the way in both selling our old house and buying our new house. It was stressful, but I trusted in the experience of the team and it was the right thing to do. The Valentino team is an invaluable resource and I couldn't have done it without them. Rachel was with me every step of the way. When we discussed putting our house on the market, she guided us on making the right return on investment choices, what our target should be to bring us up to meet the comps, and when we needed to list our property. She brought in professional stagers, copy writers, photographers and either Rachel or Ben were there to assist. The team's experience melted away our stress, and we successfully sold and bought in six weeks! She helped make our property for sale perfect, and we received offers the first weekend! We went in with a good offer on the house of our dreams, and it was accepted. I cannot begin to express my appreciation for the Valentino team knowledge and professionalism. Every single thing they did was top notch and exuded class. Would absolutely, and already have, recommend Rachel and her team to family and friends.
