

To describe Rachel, Ben, and my (now 3 experiences) with them, I wouldn't have enough time or space. It's not often that spending money can feel so pleasant. Their passion for their clients and their profession emanate throughout each step in the process of purchasing a new home. I swear Rachel has ESP - she managed to find me places within days, and made the negotiation and buying so easy. I'd give this group 10 stars if I could. Love you guys!
