

I would rate my experience as a 10. From my first communication with Rachel to my work with Maria, I felt my real estate needs were understood and met. Every question or concern was addressed immediately; throughout the process, I always felt I was in close touch with Maria.

I have already recommended your group to someone else. My house hunting and purchase experience was as positive as my daughter's who used Rachel several years ago.

Sharon J