

Our overall experience with Valentino & Associates was excellent. The team was awesome! We worked with Rachel Valentino & Ben Kanoy principally. The team made themselves available for communication throughout the day and at all hours of the day. Rachel helped us close on the house that we purchased after midnight on the day we decided to make an offer. The team was relentless to our needs and made excellent recommendations. I also appreciated that Rachel helped talk us out of an emotional purchase that ultimately would not have been the right decision for our family. The team was very focused on making sure that we were ultimately going to be very happy rather than being focused on just getting a deal made. Rachel and Ben will be lifelong friends of ours and we would definitely recommend their services to our friends in the future. Everything was extraordinary.
