

I had a wonderful experience with Rachel Valentino and her team. I worked closely with Ben and Jenn who both earn a 10 for their work. They were excellent in helping with all aspects of the sale as I was out of the country but Ben in particular was fantastic in helping to identify, solve, and repair a gas leak in my condo. Every aspect of my selling experience was extraordinary. The team got my place staged, listed, under contract and sold in less than 2 months with an absent homeowner and a power of attorney in Illinois. Rachel and her team are honest, hardworking, trustworthy and they really listen to what I hoped to achieve and made absentee selling extremely easy and worry-free. They took care of everything. I would highly recommend them.
