

Valentino & Associates offers exceptional service. Maria was our main point of contact. She was so professional in her demeanor and advice. We appreciated her guidance but also her ability to let us figure things out on our own, she was never pushy with any recommendations and was supportive of us every step of the way. We worked with Scott on two property visits when Maria was unavailable...she handled this arrangement swiftly when she was unable to meet us one afternoon and he was wonderful. Ben handled our closing for us, and met us at the house for a final walkthrough and then attended settlement when Maria was unable. He was also top notch. Maria was a true pleasure to work with. We had never purchased a home before and couldn't have made it through this stressful experience without her...she calmed our fears and guided us every step of the way with utmost professionalism and poise.
