

Having worked with a few different realtors in DC, I wish we would have worked with Rachel and her team from the start. They were professional, timely, experts that walked us through each step and made recommendations that got our condo sold fast and above what we were expecting. Every penny of upfront costs: staging, painting, repairs paid off huge dividends in the end.

Rachel's team made the whole process painless and we just were able to breathe easy throughout.

From the bottom of our hearts, we thank Rachel and her team. They were above and beyond fantastic!
