

Rated 10 out of 10. We sold our apartment for the first time and it was a complicated situation due to the condo association. Rachel was very knowledgeable and patient with us, which was much appreciated. I don't have any recommendations for improvements. Just continue with their very good service of being extremely responsive and honest.