

Rachel and her team are amazing, and really helped educate us as first-time home buyers on exactly what we should expect and the best ways to purchase a home. Rachel herself went above and beyond in the 11th hour to ensure that a seller considered our bid, and it was accepted! We recommend them to anyone in the DC metro area who is looking to buy or sell. They are thorough, attentive, and knowledgeable. We also rely on Valentino and Associates for recommendations on contractors and vendors for home improvement projects, and everyone we have hired has been excellent. We will definitely list our home with them when we plan to sell. Their advice is invaluable. Top-notch service all the way!
