

I would rate our experience a 10! Working with Rachel was incredibly easy, and her strategy netted us a phenomenal deal! Everything was extraordinary. We were selling from overseas and Rachel did so much to accommodate our needs. Rachel explained everything to us - she made suggestions but explained those suggestions clearly and gave us the space to agree/disagree. Luckily we agreed with all her suggestions and ended up getting an amazing deal! In particular, the way she hyped the property before listing I think is what really made the difference. We'll also refer you to everyone we know. Seriously this was such an amazing experience and we are so grateful to you!!
