

Rachel and her team are incredible to work with! They carefully walked me and my husband through the process of being a first time home buyer and made sure to negotiate the best deals. The transaction was smooth and we were made to feel like valued clients! The entire team was surprisingly honest. Something I did not find while looking for other Realtor's. We referred the Valentino Team to friends and they too were very pleased with their experience. Additionally, on our year anniversary of owning we received a gift from them congratulating us. It was truly a pleasant surprise! :) We will definitely use Team Valentino when we upgrade to a larger place in DC in the next year or two!!
