

Thank you for all of your hard work and dedication in helping me find my first home by navigating me through the home buying process with your expertise. I truly appreciated your exceptional service, knowledge of the DC neighborhoods and real estate, flexibility, patience, and most importantly your honesty. Trying to find the perfect home can be an emotional process filled with excitement, happiness, and disappointment, but working with you and your team consistently kept the process enjoyable with your positive attitude, dedication, and motivation. I also appreciated that while my initial focus was finding a home that met my specific criteria, you provided the additional perspective for considering the purchase as an investment. You and your team were always dependable and available, starting with our initial coffee meeting, recommending competitive lenders, scheduling and attending condo showings, organizing a last-minute viewing, coordinating the inspection, attending the final walk through and settlement, and providing the directory of service providers.
