

“My experience with the Valentino Associates was excellent. I have worked with Rachel in the past and worked with Aaron, Rachel and Ben to sell and purchase a new home this time. Everything was perfect and couldn't have gone better. Everyone was phenomenal. Communication was always great, letting me know what I need to do or what steps were approaching. Each answered all of my questions and kept me in the loop for the whole process. In selling our house in DC, Rachel recommended a strategy based on our timelines and concerns and really maximized our return and had 11 solid offers in less than a week. In buying the house in Alexandria, Aaron provided me with excellent advice on coming up with an offer that was fair and attractive to the seller and which allowed me to get a great deal on a fantastic house in a great neighborhood. My entire experience was perfect.

Jeff V.