

As a first time buyer in DC, I needed someone who I could trust to do a good job. Rachel and her team did a great job of steering me in the right direction based off of my needs and available finances. Was always available, was very confident in her abilities, advised me when I needed to be advised and there was no hiccups. Deal was done very quickly and efficiently. Couldn't have asked for more from an agent.

- Ray W.